LaGrange Police Officer Honored as Georgia's L.E.A.D. Instructor of the Year

LaGrange, Ga. April 13, 2023 – LaGrange Police Officer Bryant Mosley is the State of Georgia's L.E.A.D. Instructor of the Year.

LPD Officer Bryant Mosley receives Georgia's L.E.A.D. Instructor of the Year

Officer Mosley received the award in March at the national L.E.A.D. conference in New Jersey. He is being honored in recognition of his outstanding efforts in implementing the L.E.A.D. program benefitting the community and state in an exemplary fashion.

“It really feels good to be recognized for being able to be of service to people and especially our young people,” said Mosley. “This is how I was raised, to be focused on helping and being of service. If we don’t take initiative to shape and mold our future, who will do it? I’m truly blessed to get the support I need to be able to help as well from our command staff and especially my direct supervisor Lt. Butler.”

Law Enforcement Against Drugs and Violence, or L.E.A.D., is a program committed to protecting our youth and communities from the proliferation of drugs, drug-related crimes, peer-to-peer/cyberbullying, and violence. Specially trained officers deliver educational courses through the L.E.A.D. program in the community’s local elementary schools.

Officer Bryant is a licensed counselor and is studying to receive his doctorate. He has been with the LaGrange Police Department since 2020.
