City of LaGrange Animal Shelter Receives Large Donation from Late LaGrange Resident

LaGrange, Ga. October 23, 2017 – The City of LaGrange’s Animal Shelter received a donation from the late Keith Wells in the amount of $21,400.

Friends of Wells, Terry Page and Steve Fondren, presented the money to Mayor Jim Thornton and City Manager Meg Kelsey.

Wells was originally from Sibley, Iowa. He graduated from Sibley High School in 1947. He went on to South Dakota State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts and graduated in 1951. He then attended Parsons School of Design in New York City and graduated in 1957.

Mr. Wells moved to LaGrange and went on to work for Milliken and Interface.

He most recently lived at Vernon Woods.

The City of LaGrange plans to honor Mr. Wells' wishes of using the money at the Animal Shelter.

Keith Wells passed September, 25, 2017. He was 88 years old.
