Former LPD K9 Chico Passes Away

LaGrange, Ga. September 7, 2018 – The LaGrange Police Department today lost its retired K9 partner Chico after his battle with cancer.

Chico faithfully served as an LPD K9 from September 2010 to April 2018.

Since his retirement, Chico has been living with the Bryant family and adapting to his new role as a regular four-legged family member.

Please keep Chico's K9 handler Wendy Bryant and her family in your thoughts and prayers as they deal with their loss.
