LaGrange Mayor Declares Friday, December 18th Callaway High School Cavaliers Day

LaGrange, Ga. December 18, 2020 – LaGrange Mayor Jim Thornton has declared December 18th, 2020 Callaway High School Cavaliers Day.

Mayor Thornton presents the proclamation Friday morning

Mayor Thornton read the official proclamation this morning at Callaway High School to the CHS Football team and coaches.

As part of Callaway High School Cavaliers Day, the community is invited to wear red and black and decorate their businesses in the team colors. Lafayette Square is also decorated in red and black.

The team will play Rabun County High School in the semifinal round of the GHSA State Playoffs. The winner will go on to play in the State Championship game.

The Cavaliers have made the State playoffs 20 of the 25 years in existence, with an overall record of 193-97-1.

Kickoff is set for tonight Friday, December 18th, 7:30 p.m. at Callaway Stadium.
